

New U-Boat Assault Predicted
By Telephone to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

BERNE, Switzerland, May 6—Military circles in Berlin predict an early revival of U-boat warfare after an interval of almost a year. It is believed that Grand Admiral Karl Doenitz has reorganized his "U-boat pack" strategy and will make it part of the German plans for meeting an invasion.

If he has now succeeded in devising new methods to meet the Allies' strategy for the protection of convoys, the Berlin reports make no reference to them. The comment confines itself to supporting his theories that U-boat packs can successfully harass invasion convoys by attacking them from the rear.

The New York Times

Copyright © The New York Times
Originally published May 7, 1944